

MEET MISS ALLISON

E&E Faculty

About Me

Allison started dancing at age 3 and has not stopped since. Her passion for teaching began at age 13 with student teaching, and since then has taught ages 3 all the way up to 70 in a myriad of styles. In addition to her studio training growing up, she had the opportunity to study at the Stoneleigh-Burnham summer intensive as well as attending UNC as a dance minor. Allison has performed in many shows including Little Shop of Horrors, Les Miserable, Sweet Charity, 42nd Street, Guys and Dolls, and more around the Denver metro area. Allison also works closely with Magic Moments Inc as a choreographer to help create shows for people of all abilities. Allison loves being part of the E&E family!
